SECTION II – RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Equity Shares involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider all the information in this Draft Prospectus, including the risks and uncertainties summarized below, before making an investment in our Equity Shares. In making an investment decision prospective investors must rely on their own examination of our Company and the terms of this issue including the merits and risks involved. The risks described below are relevant to the industries our Company is engaged in, our Company and our Equity Shares. Any potential investor in, and subscriber of, the Equity Shares should also pay particular attention to the fact that we are governed in India by a legal and regulatory environment in which some material respects may be different from that which prevails in other countries. The risks and uncertainties described in this section are not the only risks and uncertainties we currently face. Additional risks and uncertainties not known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also have an adverse effect on our business. If any of the following risks, or other risks that are not currently known or are now deemed immaterial, actually occur, our business, results of operations and financial condition could suffer, the price of our Equity Shares could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment. Additionally, our business operations could also be affected by additional factors that are not presently known to us or that we currently consider as immaterial to our operations.

This Draft Prospectus also contains forward looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of many factors, including the considerations described below and elsewhere in this Draft Prospectus. These risks are not the only ones that our Company faces. Unless specified or quantified in the relevant risk factors below, we are not in a position to quantify financial or other implication of any risks mentioned herein.

To obtain a complete understanding of our Company, you should read this section in conjunction with the chapters titled 'Business Overview' and 'Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations' beginning on page 111 and 210 respectively, of this Draft Prospectus as well as the other financial and statistical information contained in this Draft Prospectus. Prior to making an investment decision, prospective investors should carefully consider all of the information contained in the section titled 'Financial Statements' beginning on page 177 of this Draft Prospectus. Unless stated otherwise, the financial data in this section is as per our financial statements prepared in accordance with Indian GAAP.

Materiality

The risk factors have been determined on the basis of their materiality. The following factors have been considered for determining the materiality:

1. Some events may not be material individually but may be material when considered collectively.
2. Some events may have an impact which is qualitative though not quantitative.
3. Some events may not be material at present but may have a material impact in the future.

The risk factors are as envisaged by the management along with the proposals to address the risk, if any. Wherever possible, the financial impact of the risk factors has been quantified.

INTERNAL RISKS

Risks relating to Our Company and Business

1. We are dependent on one business segment i.e. Oilfield service providers. Our business and financial condition would be materially and adversely affected if we fail to obtain new contracts, which are in most cases, awarded following competitive bidding process.

Most of the contracts entered into by our Company are either with government companies or entities controlled by governments. Contracts are awarded following competitive bidding processes and satisfaction of prescribed pre-qualification criteria. A potential client will typically draw up a short-list based on the technical capability statements received and then evaluate the pricing terms offered. Further, once the prospective bidders satisfy the pre-qualification requirements of the tender, the project is usually awarded based on the basis of the quote by the prospective bidder. We cannot assure you that our bids, when submitted would be accepted.

Additionally, the government conducted tender processes may be subject to change in qualification criteria, unexpected delays and uncertainties. There can be no assurance that the projects for which we bid will be tendered within a reasonable time, or at all. Further, our operations are subject to restrictions pursuant to financial regulation and anti-corruption legislations, compliance with which may be onerous and may affect our ability to compete with entities which are not so regulated. Also, in future if our clients like ONGC, Essar Oil Limited, Cairn India Limited, etc do not outsource oilfield services it may affect our business.

The growth of our business and our cash flows mainly depends on our ability to obtain new contracts in the sectors we operate. Our future results of operations and cash flows can fluctuate materially from period to period depending on our ability to obtain new contracts and the timing of contract awards.

2. We require high working capital for our smooth day to day operations of business and any discontinuance or our inability to procure adequate working capital timely and on favorable terms may have an adverse effect on our operations, profitability and growth prospects.

Our business demands substantial funds towards working capital requirements. In case there are insufficient cash flows to meet our working capital requirement or we are unable to arrange the same from other sources or there are delays in disbursement of arranged funds, or we are unable to procure funds on favorable terms, it may result into our inability to finance our working capital needs on a timely basis which may have an adverse effect on our operations, profitability and growth prospects.

3. Our lenders have charge over our movable and immovable properties in respect of finance availed by us.

We have secured our lenders by creating a charge over our movable and immovable properties in respect of loans / facilities availed by us from banks and financial institutions. The total amounts outstanding and payable by us as long term secured loans were Rs. 618.12 Lakhs as on 30th September 2017 and short term secured loans were Rs. 300.81 Lakhs as on 30th September, 2017. In the event we may default in repayment of the loans / facilities availed by us and any interest thereof, our properties may be forfeited by lenders, which in turn could have significant adverse effect on business, financial condition or results of operations.

4. Operational failures and associated reputational consequences may lead to an increasingly stringent regulatory environment.

Operational failures of companies operating in crude oil and natural gas exploration, development and production, together with associated reputational consequences, may lead to increasingly stringent environmental and other regulations.

Given the possibility of unanticipated regulatory or other developments, including more stringent environmental laws and regulations, the amount and timing of future environmental compliance expenditures could vary substantially from their current levels. We cannot predict what additional environmental legislation or regulations will be enacted in the future or the potential effects on our financial position and results of operations, and potentially significant expenditures could be necessary in order to comply with future environmental laws. Also, such capital expenditures and operating expenses relating to environmental matters will be subject to evolving regulatory requirements and will depend on the timing of the promulgation and enforcement of specific standards that impose additional requirements on our operations. Accordingly, we cannot assure you that we will not be subject to stricter enforcement or interpretation of existing environmental laws and regulations, or that such laws and regulations will not become more stringent in the future.

5. We may not be able to upgrade our existing technologies and to assimilate and acquire new, more advanced technologies in a timely and cost-effective manner.

In order to optimize production, carry out exploration in deep-water areas, exploit non-producing basins and acquire knowledge and expertise about frontier basins, it is necessary that we adopt advanced technology rapidly and cost-effectively, and train our personnel in the operation and maintenance of such technology. If we are unable to acquire such technology in a timely manner or fail to appropriately revamp existing technology, we may not be able to fully exploit our reserves.

As acquisition of technology is highly capital intensive, if such technology is not utilized in a productive and efficient manner, we may not realize the benefits we expect from such technology and our operations and profitability may be adversely affected. There can be no assurances that we will be able to successfully implement the technology on which our strategy is dependent and our failure to do so could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, if we are unable to acquire new technology we may have to incur even greater expense to lease such technology than we would have incurred to acquire it.

6. The construction, maintenance, upgrading, repair and refurbishment of our rigs require substantial expenditure which could have a material impact on our financial condition.

Our operations rely on our rigs and the operational equipment installed on each of them. We are required to maintain our rigs to certain standards and to maintain the certification of such rigs. Construction, maintenance, upgrading and repair projects are generally subject to risks of delay or cost overruns resulting from numerous factors including, but not limited to, those set out below:

- shortages, or unscheduled delays in the delivery, of equipment, materials or skilled labour;
- design and engineering problems, including those relating to the commissioning of newly designed equipment;
- work stoppages including those due to industrial action or power shortages;
- unanticipated cost increases;
- weather interferences or storm damage;
- lack of capacity at the shipyards with the appropriate expertise;
- difficulties in obtaining necessary classification society requirements;
- issues with client acceptance for customized upgrading, resulting in additional work being required;
- shipyard insolvency, failure or performance default, or other problems or disputes with our shipbuilders including as a result of force majeure events; and
- local and international political environment.

We also have to maintain the operational equipment installed on our rigs, and we may have to repair or refurbish our rigs, and acquire additional spare parts and assets, all of which involves substantial expenditure. There can be no assurance that we will be able to finance such expenditure, or that it will not have a materially adverse effect on our results and profitability. In general, expenditures necessary for maintaining a rig in good operating condition increase with the age of the rig, but are difficult to predict. There can be no assurance that our older rigs will not require extensive repairs, which would result in significant expense and extended periods of time during which these rigs would be out of service. Changes in technology may render our current services obsolete and require us to make substantial capital investment which will negatively affect our results of operations and financial condition. However, our operating and maintenance costs will not necessarily fluctuate in proportion to changes in operating revenues.

7. Our results of operations may be adversely affected due to change in geographical locations.

As our rigs are mobilized from one geographic location to another, the labour and other operating and maintenance costs can vary significantly. Also, we may not utilize 100% of our capacity installed if geographical conditions change and the same may not be favourable. In general, labour costs increase primarily due to higher salary levels and inflation, while equipment maintenance expenses fluctuate depending upon the type of activity, the unit is performing and the age and condition of the equipment.

8. Our results of operations may be adversely affected due to our inability to select or negotiate favorable contractual terms.

Although we generally seek longer term contracts for our rigs, market conditions at the time of negotiating contracts for use of our rigs may result in us accepting shorter term contracts. A failure to negotiate favorable terms of the contract, particularly when a market is at its inflection point, could lock us into low returns and have an adverse effect on our profits and results of operations. In certain instances, the contractual terms agreed upon might not be favorable to us including execution of agreements in the jurisdiction of our clients. This may have considerable impact on our reputation and our inability to enter into agreements on terms favorable to us may adversely affect our results of operations, business and financial condition.

9. Our business is dependent on industry conditions, which may be influenced by several factors beyond our control. These factors may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Our business is dependent upon the levels of oil and gas exploration, development and production activities within the markets in which we operate. A reduction in exploration, development and production activities, or in the budgeted expenditure of oil and gas companies, will cause a decline in the demand for our rigs and services, which could have a material adverse effect on our financial performance. Global warming may result in clients pursuing alternatives to oil and gas exploration and leaning toward other sources of renewable energy. Furthermore, there can be no assurance that oil and gas companies will be able to obtain the financing necessary to explore, develop or produce new prospects, resulting in reduced demand for our services. The prevailing and projected prices of oil and gas are major factors influencing our clients' activity levels and planned expenditures. In addition to the prices of oil and gas, exploration, development and production activities in the oil and gas industry are influenced by many other factors over which we have no control. Such factors include:

- overall level of global economic growth and activity;
- actual and perceived changes in the supply and demand for oil and gas;
- domestic and foreign governmental policies, regulations and actions, including export restrictions, taxes, repatriations, nationalizations and environmental regulations;
- policies of oil and gas producing countries and the ability of members of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries to agree upon and maintain oil prices and production levels;
- merger and divestiture activity among oil and gas producers;
- exploration, development, production and delivery costs of operators;
- levels of oil and gas reserves and discovery rates of new reserves or decline and depletion rates for oil and gas wells;
- advances in exploration, development and production technology;
- the price and availability of alternative fuels;
- the effect of environmental, climate protection measures and energy conservation measures; and
- seasonal or extraordinary weather conditions.

High oil and gas prices make it viable for our clients to continue or increase their planned exploration, development and production spending. However, significant volatility or any prolonged downward trend or in oil and gas prices, or any perception or expectation of the same by our clients, may cause our clients to reduce or defer expenditures on exploration, development and production projects. In addition, sustained high oil and gas prices could be an impediment to general economic growth and may affect the spending decisions of our clients and adversely affect our financial performance.

10. We operate in regions where the geo-political and economic climates may be challenging and where legal and regulatory frameworks may be uncertain, which exposes us to the inherent risks of the regions in which we operate.

We operate in regions where the geo-political and economic climates may be challenging, or which may be affected by political upheavals, internal strife, civil commotions, epidemics and terrorist attacks. The instability in some regions also leads to uncertain legal and regulatory frameworks. As such, we are exposed to the inherent risks of the regions in which we operate. These may include:

- political and economic instability;
- civil unrest, acts of terrorism, attacks by pirates, kidnapping, war or other armed conflict;
- unexpected or frequent changes in governmental policies, legal and regulatory environments;
- increasingly complex tax laws, the application of which can be uncertain, increased tax rates, new tax laws or revised interpretations of existing tax laws and precedents;
- difficulties, time and costs involved in complying with a wide variety of complex, uncertain and/or conflicting local laws, treaties and regulations which may be interpreted differently by regulators, government entities, courts (national, regional and municipal) and businesses;
- difficulties enforcing agreements and collecting receivables through local legal systems;
- restrictions on repatriation of income or capital;
- volatility in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates; and
- high inflation.

Economic conditions in the regions we operate can be unstable, and factors such as those listed above may harm or halt economic growth in these regions. A deterioration of the geo-political or economic climate in one or more of our key markets may require us to discontinue our business operations in the affected country or countries. Target clients may temporarily decrease or stop exploration and production and other business activities, resulting in a decline in demand for our rigs and services. Such a decline may increase the risk that our contracts will not be renewed or extended, or be renewed only on less favorable terms, or be breached or terminated. If we are unable to immediately find new deployment for our rigs, our business, financial conditions and results of operations would be adversely affected. In addition, not all of our rigs are insured against risk of loss due to perils such as terrorist acts, civil unrest, expropriation, nationalization and acts of war.

11. The success of our business is dependant on our ability to employ and retain skilled employees.

The success of our business is dependant on our ability to employ and retain personnel with specialized skills and technical knowledge, such as engineers, rig and operations managers, and sales and service staff. We may experience a reduction in the experience level of our personnel as a result of any increased turnover, which could lead to higher downtime and more operating incidents, which in turn could decrease revenues and increase costs. Competition has resulted in inflationary pressure on hiring, training and retention costs for such personnel. Companies in the oilfield services industry typically offer attractive compensation packages to attract and retain qualified personnel. The financial resources required to continue to attract and retain such personnel may adversely affect our operating margins. In response to these historical labor market conditions, we increased efforts in our recruitment, training, development and retention programs as required to meet our anticipated personnel needs. If we are unable to continue to attract and retain skilled employees in the future, there may be an interruption or delay to our operations and may have an adverse effect on our business.

12. Our inability to obtain, renew or maintain our statutory and regulatory permits and approvals and other certifications required to operate our business may have a material adverse effect on the results of our operation and business.

We require certain statutory and regulatory permits and approvals for our business. In the future, we will be required to renew such permits and approvals and obtain new permits and approvals for any proposed operations. There can be no assurance that the relevant authorities will issue any of such permits or approvals in the time-frame anticipated by us or at all. Failure by us to renew, maintain or obtain the required permits or approvals may result in our assets remaining idle and consequently, affecting our ability to obtain new contracts. This could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Failure by us to obtain such renewal may result in the interruption of our operations and may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

13. Our accounts receivable collection cycle is relatively long, which exposes us to higher client credit risk in our results.

Our accounts receivable collection cycle is fairly long as a result of the nature of our business and operations. This makes our business more susceptible to market downturns and client credit risk.

Further, although for some of our construction contracts, the contracts provide for guaranteed payments supported by letters of credit, the failure of our clients to make timely payments could require us to write off accounts and made provisions against receivables or increase our working capital requirements or accounts receivable reserves, which could adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

14. There is no monitoring agency appointed by our Company and deployment of funds are at the discretion of our Management and our Board of Directors, though it shall be monitored by the Audit Committee.

As per SEBI (ICDR) Regulations, 2009 appointment of monitoring agency is required only for Issue size above Rs. 100 Crores. Hence, we have not appointed a monitoring agency to monitor the utilization of Issue proceeds. However, the audit committee of our Board will monitor the utilization of Issue proceeds.

Further, our Company shall inform about material deviations in the utilization of Issue proceeds to the NSE Limited and shall also simultaneously make the material deviations / adverse comments of the audit committee public.

Further, we propose to utilize the Net Proceeds for purposes identified in the section titled “Objects of the Issue” and we propose to utilize the Rs. 250 Lakhs of the Net Proceeds towards general corporate purposes, namely, brand building exercises and strengthening of our marketing capabilities. The manner of deployment and allocation of such funds is entirely at the discretion of our management and our Board, subject to compliance with the necessary provisions of the Companies Act.

15. Our company has taken secured loan from HDFC Bank Limited wherein our promoters are co-borrowers. Further, our Promoters have given personal guarantees in relation to cash credit facilities and term loan provided to our Company by ICICI Bank Limited. In event of default on the debt obligations, the personal guarantees may be invoked thereby adversely affecting our Promoters’ ability to manage the affairs of our Company and consequently may impact our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

Our company has taken secured loan from HDFC Bank Limited amount outstanding as on 30th September, 2017 is Rs. 349.78 lakhs wherein our promoters are co-borrowers. Further, our Company has availed cash credit facilities and term loan from ICICI Bank Limited. The outstanding balance as on 30th September 2017 for cash credit facilities and term loan was Rs. 300.81 Lakhs and Rs. 64.27 lakhs, respectively. Such facilities stipulate that the facility shall be secured by a personal guarantee by all the three Promoters named Mr. Vipul Navin Haria, Mr. Hemang Navin Haria and Mr. Krunal Pravin Haria. In event of default on the debt obligations, the personal guarantee may be invoked thereby adversely affecting our Promoters’ ability to manage the affairs of our Company and consequently may impact our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

16. We have not received ‘No Objection Certificate’ from few lenders of secured loans to our company.

We have not received the No Objection Certificate letter from HDFC Bank Limited and Dewan Housing Finance Corporation Limited. Our company has applied for NOC from these lenders and is awaiting the same. Lender may take objection for public offer by putting certain condition to secure their outstanding dues. However our company does not foresee such objection from lenders.

17. Our company has contingent liability in the form of Bank Guarantee from ICICI Bank Limited.

Our company has contingent liability in the form of Bank Guarantee given to our customers amounting to Rs. 6,44,70,011 as on 12th February, 2018 availed from ICICI Bank Limited. These bank guarantees are the performance guarantees given to our customers. In the event of non-performance such bank guarantees may be invoked and it may adversely affect our business operations and financial results.

18. Our success depends largely upon the services of our Directors, Promoters and other Key Managerial Personnel and our ability to attract and retain them. Demand for Key Managerial Personnel in the industry is intense and our inability to attract and retain Key Managerial Personnel may affect the operations of our Company.

Our success is substantially dependent on the expertise and services of our Directors, Promoters and our Key Managerial Personnel. They provide expertise which enables us to make well informed decisions in relation to our business and our future prospects. Our future performance will depend upon the continued services of these persons. Demand for Key Managerial Personnel in the industry is intense. We cannot assure you that we will be able to retain any or all, or that our succession planning will help to replace, the key members of our management. The loss of the services of such key members of our management team and the failure of any succession plans to replace such key members could have an adverse effect on our business and the results of our operations.

19. We have not made any alternate arrangements for meeting our capital requirements for the Objects of the issue. Further we have not identified any alternate source of financing the ‘Objects of the Issue’. Any shortfall in raising / meeting the same could adversely affect our growth plans, operations and financial performance.

As on date, we have not made any alternate arrangements for meeting our capital requirements for the objects of the issue. We meet our capital requirements through our bank finance, owned funds and internal accruals. Any shortfall in our net owned funds, internal accruals and our inability to raise debt in future would result in us being unable to meet our capital requirements, which in turn will negatively affect our financial condition and results of operations. Further we have not identified any alternate source of funding and hence any failure or delay on our part to raise money from this issue or any shortfall in the issue proceeds may delay the implementation schedule and could adversely affect our growth plans. For further details please refer to the chapter titled “Objects of the Issue” beginning on page no. 76 of this Draft Prospectus.

20. Our Insurance cover may be inadequate to protect us fully from all losses and damages which in turn would adversely affect our financial condition and results of operations.

Our Company has availed various types of Vehicle Policies like Miscellaneous and special type of vehicles–package Policy, Commercial Vehicle Package Policy, GVC Private Carrier other than 3 wheeler Package Policy, etc. covering our Plants and Machinery. We may also incur losses on the occurrence of unforeseen events such as floods, fire, accidents, etc. for which we may have obtained Standard Fire and Special Perils insurance policy. Our Company has also availed of Workmen Insurance Policy covering our engineers and other workers engaged at various sites anywhere in India and contract works, accident or series of accident arising out of any event, clearance and debris removal, plant and machinery and any other normal perils or collapses. However, there can be no assurance that the insurance policies will adequately cover losses and damages which may be suffered by us. Losses suffered by our Company in excess of the availed insurance coverage or due to occurrence of unforeseen events will have to be borne by our Company itself. Also, there cannot be any assurance that all claims made by the Company will be honoured duly by the insurers. If our claims are not fully honoured, our financial condition may be affected adversely. For further details, kindly refer to “Our Business – Insurance” on page no. 111 of this Draft Prospectus.

21. The trademark and logo used by our company is not registered.

As on the date of this Draft Prospectus, the current logo of the Company Aakash Exploration is not registered in the name of our company. If someone else registers the same trademark or logo we may find ourselves in a highly inconvenient and very costly position of becoming embroiled in litigation and potentially having to withdraw our marketing literature, and pay damages or an account of profits to the registered trademark owner. Besides the quantifiable costs, we could also risk any goodwill that we may have established in the brand name over the years. This may also affect our brand and reputation, thus affecting our business.

22. Our Company had negative cash flow in recent fiscals, details of which are given below. Sustained negative cash flow could adversely impact our business, financial condition and results of operations.

The detailed break up of cash flows is summarized in below mentioned table and our Company has reported negative cash flow in certain financial years and which could affect our business and growth:

(Amount in Rs..)

		2017	2016	2015	2014	2013

Cash flow of a company is a key indicator to show the extent of cash generated from operations to meet its capital expenditure, pay dividends, repay loans and make new investments without raising finance from external resources. If we are not able to generate sufficient cash flow, it may adversely affect our business and financial operations. For further details please refer to the section titled 'Financial Statements' and chapter titled 'Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Conditions and Results of Operations' beginning on page no. 177 and page no. 210 respectively, of this Draft Prospectus.

24. We have entered into certain related party transactions and may continue to do so.

We have entered into related party transactions with our Promoters, its group members/ entities, Directors and other associates. While we believe that all such transactions have been conducted on arm length basis, however it is difficult to ascertain whether more favorable terms would have been achieved had such transactions been entered with unrelated parties. Furthermore, it is likely that we will continue to enter into related party transactions in the near future. There can be no assurance that such transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will not have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operation. For further details regarding the related party transactions, see the disclosure on related party transactions contained in the financial statements included in this Draft Prospectus and, also see the section “Related Party Transactions” on page 200.

25. We derive a significant portion of our income from a limited number of clients.

We currently derive a substantial portion of our income from a limited number of large clients. The business we derive from our clients is dependent on the decisions that our clients make which are largely influenced by various factors beyond our control. In the future, we could lose these key clients due to major events affecting them such as change of management, mergers and acquisitions or an economic slowdown, change in government and political scenario or lack of funding by the government. Moreover we are not the exclusive service provider to such clients and they have not committed to provide us with a minimum volume of work. Accordingly, we cannot guarantee that our key clients will continue to use our services or continue to provide us with work at historical volumes and commissions. The loss of our most significant clients or a significant decrease in the volume of work from these clients would have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial conditions and cash flows.

26. Our Company, Directors and Promoters are not involved but may in the future, be involved in certain legal proceedings, which, if determined adversely, may adversely affect our business and financial condition.

Our Company may in the future be, implicated in lawsuits in the ordinary course of our business, including lawsuits and arbitrations involving compensation for loss due to various reasons including tax matters, civil disputes, labour and service matters, statutory notices, regulatory petitions, consumer cases and other matters. Any Litigation or arbitration could result in substantial costs and a diversion of effort by us and/or subject us to significant liabilities to third parties. In addition, our Company is subject to risks of litigation including public interest litigation, contract, employment related, personal injury and property damage. Our Company cannot provide any assurance that these legal proceedings will be decided in our favour. Any adverse decision may have a significant effect on our business including the financial condition of our Company, delay in implementation of our current or future project and results of operations. There can be no assurance that the results of such legal proceedings will not materially harm our business, reputation or standing in the marketplace or that our Company will be able to recover any losses incurred from third parties, regardless of whether our Company is at fault or not. There can be no assurance that losses relating to litigation or arbitration will be covered by insurance, that any such losses would not have a material adverse effect on the results of our operations or financial condition, or that provisions made for litigation and arbitration related losses would be sufficient to cover our ultimate loss or expenditure. Details of outstanding proceedings that have been initiated against our Company, our Promoters, our Group Companies and our Directors are set forth in the section titled “Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments” starting from page number 220 of this Draft Prospectus.

27. Any loss of or breakdown of operations at any of our operational facilities may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our operational facilities are subject to operating risks, such as the breakdown or failure of equipment, power supply or processes, performance below expected levels of output or efficiency, obsolescence, labour disputes, natural disasters, accidents and the need to comply with the directives of relevant government authorities. The occurrence of any of these risks could significantly affect our operating results.

28. We may not be successful in implementing our business strategies.

The success of our business depends substantially on our ability to implement our business strategies effectively or at all. Even though we have successfully executed our business strategies in the past, there is no guarantee that we can implement the same on time and within the estimated budget going forward, or that we will be able to meet the expectations of our targeted customers. Changes in regulations applicable to us may also make it difficult to implement our business strategies. Failure to implement our business strategies would have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

29. Delay in raising funds from the IPO could adversely impact the implementation schedule.

The proposed expansion, as detailed in the section titled "Objects of the Issue" is to be largely funded from the proceeds of this IPO. We have not identified any alternate source of funding and hence any failure or delay on our part to mobilize the required resources or any shortfall in the Issue proceeds may delay the implementation schedule. We therefore, cannot assure that we would be able to execute the expansion process within the given timeframe, or within the costs as originally estimated by us. Any time overrun or cost overrun may adversely affect our growth plans and profitability.

30. Our Board of Directors and management may change our operating policies and strategies without prior notice or shareholder approval.

Our Board of Directors and management has the authority to modify certain of our operating policies and strategies without prior notice (except as required by law) and without shareholder approval. We cannot predict the effect that any changes to our current operating policies or strategies would have on our business, operating results and the price of our Equity Shares.

31. Our inability to manage growth could disrupt our business and reduce our profitability.

Our Company's revenue has increased from Rs. 2490.68 lakhs as on March 31, 2016 to Rs. 3358.46 lakhs as on March 31, 2017. Further, a principal component of our strategy is to continue to grow by expanding the size and scope of our existing businesses. This growth strategy will place significant demands on our management, financial and other resources. It will require us to continuously develop and improve our operational, financial and internal controls. Continuous expansion increases the challenges involved in financial management, recruitment, training and retaining high quality human resources, a robust management talent pipeline, preserving our culture, integration of culture and values and entrepreneurial environment, and developing and improving our internal administrative infrastructure. An inability to manage such growth could disrupt our business prospects, impact our financial condition and adversely affect our results of operations.

32. Our Order Book may not necessarily indicate future income.

Our Order Book may not necessarily indicate future income, including as a result of cancellations, unanticipated variations or scope or schedule adjustments, which could adversely affect our results of operations. We cannot guarantee that the income anticipated in our Order Book will be realized, or, if realized, will be realized on time or result in profits. In addition, project cancellations or scope adjustments may occur from time to time, which could reduce the amount of our Order Book and the income and profits that we ultimately earn from the contracts.

33. Changes in technology may impact our business by making our services less competitive or obsolete or require us to incur additional capital expenditures.

Our future success will depend in part on our ability to respond to technological advances and emerging industry standards and practices on a cost-effective and timely basis. Changes in technology may make newer services more competitive than ours or may require us to incur additional capital expenditures to upgrade our technology, innovations, research and development facilities in order to provide newer services. If we are unable to adapt our technology in a timely manner to changing market conditions, client requirements or technological changes, our business, financial performance and the results of operations could be affected.

34. Our actual results could differ from the estimates and projections used to prepare our financial statements.

The estimates and projections are based on and reflect our current expectations, assumptions and/ or projections as well as our perception of historical trends and current conditions, as well as other factors that we believe are appropriate and reasonable under the circumstances. There can be no assurance that our expectations, estimates, assumptions and/or projections, including with respect to the future earnings and performance will prove to be correct or that any of our expectations, estimates or projections will be achieved.

35. Compliance with, and changes in, safety, health and environmental laws and regulations may adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

Due to the nature of our business, we expect to be or continue to be subject to extensive and increasingly stringent environmental, health and safety laws and regulations, including but not limited to:

- a) Environment (Protection) Act, 1986
- b) Air (Prevention and Control of Pollution) Act, 1981
- c) Other regulations promulgated by the Ministry of Environment and Forests and
- d) the Pollution Control Boards of the state of Gujarat

The above Regulation govern the discharge, emission, storage, handling and disposal of a variety of substances that may be used in or result from the operations of our business. The scope and extent of any new environmental regulations, including their effect on our operations, cannot be predicted and hence the costs and management time required to comply with these requirements could be significant. Amendments to such statutes may impose additional provisions to be followed by our Company and accordingly the Company may need to incur clean-up and remediation costs, as well as damages, payment of fines or other penalties, closure of production facilities for non-compliance, other liabilities and related litigation, could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

36. In addition to normal remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses, some of our Directors and key managerial personnel are interested in our Company to the extent of their shareholding and dividend entitlement in our Company.

Our Directors and Key Managerial Personnel are interested in our Company to the extent of remuneration paid to them for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses payable to them. In addition, some of our Directors and Key Managerial Personnel may also be interested to the extent of their shareholding and dividend entitlement in our Company. For further information, see “Capital Structure” and “Our Management” on page no. 54 and 146, respectively, of this Draft Prospectus.

37. Our Promoters, together with our Promoter Group, will continue to retain majority shareholding in our Company after the proposed Initial Public Issue, which will allow them to exercise significant control over us. We cannot assure you that our Promoters and Promoter Group members will always act in the best interests of the Company.

After the completion of our Initial Public Issue, our Promoters, along with our Promoter Group members, will hold, approximately 70.95% of our post issue paid up equity capital of our Company. As a result, our Promoters will continue to exercise significant control over us, including being able to control the composition of our Board and determine matters requiring shareholder approval or approval of our Board. Our Promoters may take or block actions with respect to our business, which may conflict with our interests or the interests of our minority shareholder. By exercising their control, our Promoters could delay, defer or cause a change of our control or a change in our capital structure, delay, defer or cause a merger, consolidation, takeover or other business combination involving us, discourage or encourage a potential acquirer from making a tender offer or otherwise attempting to obtain control of our Company. We cannot assure you that our Promoters and Promoter Group members will always act in our Company’s or your best interests. For further details, please refer to the chapters titled “Capital Structure” and “Our Promoter, Promoter Group and Group Companies” beginning on page no. 54, 161 and 166 respectively, of this Draft Prospectus.

38. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend upon our future earnings, financial condition, cash flows, working capital requirements, capital expenditure and restrictive covenants in our financing arrangements.

We may retain all our future earnings, if any, for use in the operations and expansion of our business. As a result, we may not declare dividends in the foreseeable future. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board of Directors and will depend on factors that our Board of Directors deem relevant, including among others, our results of operations, financial condition, cash requirements, business prospects and any other financing arrangements. Additionally, under some of our loan agreements, we may not be permitted to declare any dividends, if there is a default under such loan agreements or unless our Company has paid all the dues to the lender up to the date on which the dividend is declared or paid or has made satisfactory provisions thereof. Accordingly, realization of a gain on shareholders investments may largely depend upon the appreciation of the price of our Equity Shares. There can be no assurance that our Equity Shares will appreciate in value. For details of our dividend history, see “Dividend Policy” on page no. 176 of this Draft Prospectus.

39. Any future issuance of Equity Shares may dilute your shareholdings, and sales of the Equity Shares by our major shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of our Equity Shares.

Any future equity issuances by our Company may lead to the dilution of investors’ shareholdings in our Company. In addition, any sale of substantial Equity Shares in the public market after the completion of this Issue, including by our major shareholders, or the perception that such sales could occur, could adversely affect the market price of the Equity Shares and could significantly impair our future ability to raise capital through offerings of the Equity Shares. We cannot predict what effect, if any, market sales of the Equity Shares held by the major shareholders of our Company or the availability of these Equity Shares for future sale will have on the market price of our Equity Shares.

40. You may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on sale of Equity Shares.

Under current Indian tax laws and regulations, capital gains arising from the sale of Equity Shares in an Indian Company are generally taxable in India. Any gain realized on the sale of listed Equity Shares on a stock exchange held for more than 12 months will not be subject to capital gains tax in India if Securities Transaction Tax (“STT”) has been paid on the transaction. STT will be levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which the Equity Shares are sold. Any gain realised on the sale of Equity Shares held for more than 12 months to an Indian resident, which are sold other than on a recognized stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, will be subject to long term capital gains tax in India. Further, any gain realized on the sale of listed Equity Shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short term capital gains tax in India. Further, any gain realised on the sale of listed equity shares held for a period of 12 months or less which are sold other than on a recognised stock exchange and on which no STT has been paid, will be subject to short term capital gains tax at a relatively higher rate as compared to the transaction where STT has been paid in India. For more details, please refer to “Statement of Tax Benefits” on page no.87 of this Draft Prospectus.

41. The price of our Equity Shares may be volatile, or an active trading market for our Equity Shares may not develop.

Prior to this Issue, there has been no public market for our Equity Shares. Monarch Network Capital Limited is acting as Market Maker for the Equity Shares of our Company. However, the trading price of our Equity Shares may fluctuate after this Issue due to a variety of factors, including our results of operations and the performance of our business, competitive conditions, general economic, political and social factors, the performance of the Indian and global economy and significant developments in India’s fiscal regime, volatility in the Indian and global securities market, performance of our competitors, the Indian Capital Markets, changes in the estimates of our performance or recommendations by financial analysts and announcements by us or others regarding contracts, acquisitions, strategic partnerships, joint ventures, or capital commitments. In addition, if the stock markets experience a loss of investor confidence, the trading price of our Equity Shares could decline for reasons unrelated to our business, financial condition or operating results. The trading price of our Equity Shares might also decline in reaction to events that affect other companies in our industry even if these events do not directly affect us. Each of these factors, among others, could materially affect the price of our Equity Shares. Any instance of disinvestments of equity shares by our Promoter or by other significant shareholder(s) may significantly affect the trading price of our Equity Shares. Further, our market price may also be adversely affected even if there is a perception or belief that such sales of Equity Shares might occur.

There can be no assurance that an active trading market for our Equity Shares will develop or be sustained after this Issue, or that the price at which our Equity Shares are initially offered will correspond to the prices at which they will trade in the market subsequent to this Issue. For further details of the obligations and limitations of Market Makers, please refer to the section titled “General Information – Details of the Market Making Arrangement for this Issue” on page no. 46 of this Draft Prospectus.

42. The Issue Price of our Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Issue and the market price of our Equity Shares may decline below the Issue Price and you may not be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price.

The Issue Price of our Equity Shares has been determined on the basis of the Book Building Process. This price is based on numerous factors. For further information, see “Basis for Issue Price” beginning on page 84 of this Draft Prospectus and may not be indicative of the market price of our Equity Shares after the Issue. The market price of our Equity Shares could be subject to significant fluctuations after the Issue, and may decline below the Issue Price. We cannot assure you that you will be able to sell your Equity Shares at or above the Issue Price. Among the factors that could affect our share price are:

- Quarterly variations in the rate of growth of our financial indicators, such as earnings per share, net income and revenues;
- Changes in revenue or earnings estimates or publication of research reports by analysts;
- Speculation in the press or investment community;
- Speculation in the press or investment community;
- Domestic and international economic, legal and regulatory factors unrelated to our performance.

43. You will not be able to sell immediately on Stock Exchange any of the Equity Shares you purchase in the Issue until the Issue receives appropriate trading permissions.

The Equity Shares will be listed on the Stock Exchange. Pursuant to Indian regulations, certain actions must be completed before the Equity Shares can be listed and trading may commence. We cannot assure you that the Equity Shares will be credited to investor’s demat accounts, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence, within the time periods specified in the Draft Prospectus. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict your ability to dispose of the Equity Shares. In accordance with section 40 of the Companies Act, 2013, in the event that the permission of listing the Equity Shares is denied by the stock exchanges, we are required to refund all monies collected to investors.

44. Our Group company has made delay in filing the annual return and financial statements for the Financial year 2016-17 and 2015-16 with Registrar of Companies, Ahmedabad.

Our Group Company Haria Oilfield Services Limited has made delay in filing the Annual return and financial statements with Registrar of Companies, Ahmedabad for the financial year 2016-17 and 2015-16. The Group Company has made filing on December 23, 2017 for both the years.

The details of group companies of the company are included in the Chapter in ‘Our Promoter Group And Group Companies / Entities’ beginning on page 166 of this Draft Prospectus

EXTERNAL RISK FACTORS

45. Our business is dependent on economic growth in India.

Our performance is dependent on the health of the overall Indian economy. There have been periods of slowdown in the economic growth of India. India economic growth is affected by various factors including domestic consumption and savings, balance of trade movements primarily resulting from export demand and movements in key imports, such as oil and oil products, and annual rainfall, which affect agricultural production. For example, in the monsoon of 2009 several parts of the country experienced below average rainfall, leading to reduced farm output which impaired economic growth. In the past, economic slowdowns have harmed industries and industrial development in the country. Any future slowdown in the Indian economy could harm our business, financial condition and results of operations.

46. Financial Instability and disruptions in Indian financial markets could materially and adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

The Indian economy and financial markets are significantly influenced by worldwide economic, financial and market conditions. Any financial turmoil, may have a negative impact on the Indian economy. Although economic conditions differ in each country, investors' reactions to any significant developments in one country can have adverse effects on the financial and market conditions in other countries. A loss in investor confidence in the financial systems, particularly in other emerging markets, may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets.

Any prolonged financial crisis may have an adverse impact on the Indian economy and us, thereby resulting in a material and adverse effect on our business, operations, financial condition, profitability and price of our Equity Shares.

47. Any changes in the regulatory framework could adversely affect our operations and growth prospects.

The company is subject to various regulations and policies. For details see section titled "Key Industry Regulations" beginning on page no. 139 of this Draft Prospectus. The company's current businesses and prospects could be materially adversely affected by changes in any of these regulations and policies, including the introduction of new laws, policies or regulations or changes in the interpretation or application of existing laws, policies and regulations. There can be no assurance that it will succeed in obtaining all requisite regulatory approvals in the future for its operations or that compliance issues will not be raised in respect of its operations, either of which could have a material adverse affect on the business, financial condition and results of operations.

48. Our business is subject to a significant number of tax regimes and changes in legislation governing the rules implementing them or the regulator enforcing them in any one of those jurisdictions could negatively and adversely affect our results of operations.

The revenues recorded and income earned is taxed on differing bases, including net income actually earned, net income deemed earned and revenue-based tax withholding. The final determination of the tax liabilities involves the interpretation of local tax laws as well as the significant use of estimates and assumptions regarding the scope of future operations and results achieved and the timing and nature of income earned and expenditures incurred. Changes in the operating environment, including changes in tax laws, could impact the determination of the tax liabilities of our Company for any year.

49. Natural calamities and force majeure events may have a negative impact on the Indian economy and cause our business to suffer.

India has experienced natural calamities such as earthquakes, tsunamis, floods and drought in the past few years. These natural disasters may cause significant interruption to our operations, and damage to the environment that could have a material adverse impact on us. The extent and severity of these natural disasters determines their impact on the Indian economy. Further prolonged spells of deficient or abnormal rainfall or other natural calamities in the future could have a negative impact on the Indian economy, adversely affecting our business and the price of the Equity Shares.

50. Terrorist attacks, civil unrests and other acts of violence in India and around the region could adversely affect the markets, resulting in loss of consumer confidence and adversely affect the business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Terrorist attacks, civil unrests and other acts of violence or war in India and around the region may adversely affect worldwide financial markets and result in a loss of consumer confidence and ultimately adversely affect the business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Political tensions could create a perception that an investment in Indian companies involves higher degrees of risk and on the business and price of the Equity Shares.

51. In future the company may depend on banks and financial institutions and other sources for meeting its short and medium term financial requirements.

Any delay in the disbursal of funds from these bodies can act as a bottleneck to the project execution capabilities and thereby its results of operations. The company cannot assure that it will be able to do so on commercially reasonable terms. Any increase in interest expense may have a material adverse effect on its business prospects, financial condition and results of operations.

52. We cannot guarantee the accuracy or completeness of facts and other statistics with respect to India, the Indian economy and the Industry contained in the Draft Prospectus.

While facts and other statistics in the Draft Prospectus relating to India, the Indian economy and the Industry has been based on various government publications and reports from government agencies that we believe are reliable, we cannot guarantee the quality or reliability of such materials. While we have taken reasonable care in the reproduction of such information, industry facts and other statistics have not been prepared or independently verified by us or any of our respective affiliates or advisors and, therefore we make no representation as to their accuracy or completeness. These facts and other statistics include the facts and statistics included in the chapter titled 'Our Industry' beginning on page no. 97 of the Draft Prospectus. Due to possibly flawed or ineffective data collection methods or discrepancies between published information and market practice and other problems, the statistics herein may be inaccurate or may not be comparable to statistics produced elsewhere and should not be unduly relied upon. Further, there is no assurance that they are stated or compiled on the same basis or with the same degree of accuracy, as the case may be, elsewhere.

53. Conditions in the Indian securities market may affect the price or liquidity of our Equity Shares.

The Indian securities markets are smaller than securities markets in more developed economies and the regulation and monitoring of Indian securities markets and the activities of investors, brokers and other participants differ, in some cases significantly, from those in the more developed economies. Indian stock exchanges have in the past experienced substantial fluctuations in the prices of listed securities. Further, the Indian stock exchanges have experienced volatility in the recent times. The Indian stock exchanges have also experienced problems that have affected the market price and liquidity of the securities of Indian companies, such as temporary exchange closures, broker defaults, settlement delays and strikes by brokers. In addition, the governing bodies of the Indian stock exchanges have from time to time restricted securities from trading and limited price movements. A closure of, or trading stoppage on the SME Platform of NSE could adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

54. Global economic, political and social conditions may harm our ability to do business, increase our costs and negatively affect our stock price.

Global economic and political factors that are beyond our control, influence forecasts and directly affect performance. These factors include interest rates, rates of economic growth, fiscal and monetary policies of governments, inflation, deflation, foreign exchange fluctuations, consumer credit availability, fluctuations in commodities markets, consumer debt levels, unemployment trends and other matters that influence consumer confidence, spending and tourism. Increasing volatility in financial markets may cause these factors to change with a greater degree of frequency and magnitude, which may negatively affect our stock prices.

55. Last but not the least, Equity Investment per-se is itself a Risk Investment.

The Stock Market is affected by numerous factors both controllable and non-controllable affected by any market either domestic or international. For instance, the recent financial crisis developed in Greek and the collapse of the Chinese Stock Market affected adversely to the Indian Stock Market as well as all other Stock Markets Internationally. The said developments also affected currency markets all over the world. The commodity market was also not spared from such developments. Hence investors are advised to make their own judgement depending upon their risk appetite and invest wisely in stock market.

Global Economic Scenario

Since the last meeting of the MPC in October 2017, global economic activity has been gaining momentum through the final quarter of the year, driven mainly by advanced economies (AEs). US growth remained largely resilient to hurricanes and grew at the highest pace in the past three years in Q3 of 2017, with positive contributions from private consumption, investment activity and net exports. The unemployment rate fell to 4.1 per cent in October, the lowest in the last 17 years. In the Euro area, economic activity expanded, underpinned by accommodative monetary policy and strong job gains. The Japanese economy also continued to grow in Q3, largely supported by external demand, which helped compensate for the slowing of domestic consumption.

Among major emerging market economies (EMEs), the services sector remained the main driver of growth in China in Q3. However, weakness in real estate and construction activity remained a drag on growth. In Brazil, incoming data suggest that the recovery gained further momentum in Q3, with unemployment touching an intra-year low in September. Business and consumer confidence rose in October. Economic activity in Russia moderated in Q3 due to weakness in industrial production. The South African economy continued to face headwinds from weak manufacturing activity, elevated levels of unemployment and political instability.

Global Oil Sector

2015 was a year of thwarted adjustment for oil: strong growth in OPEC production outweighed the responses of both demand and non-OPEC production to lower prices. In contrast, 2016 was a year of adjustment for the oil market, with oil demand again increasing robustly and production growing by less than a quarter (0.4 Mb/d) of that seen in 2015.

Global oil demand grew by 1.6 Mb/d in 2016. As in 2015, this strength was almost entirely due to oil importers, with both India (0.3 Mb/d) and Europe (0.3 Mb/d) posting unusually strong increases. Although, growth in China (0.4 Mb/d) and the US (0.1 Mb/d) was more subdued. As in 2015, the strength in oil demand was most pronounced in consumer-led fuels, such as gasoline, buoyed by low prices. In contrast, diesel demand, which was more exposed to the industrial slowdown, including in the US and China, declined for the first time since 2009.

OPEC remains a central force, able to manage and stabilize the oil market, but the nature of that power means it is effective for short-term aberrations, not structural shifts. The persistent supply imbalance and growing inventory levels caused prices to fall towards the end of 2015 and into 2016.

Global Natural Gas Sector

Global consumption increased by 1.5% (63 bcm), quite a bit weaker than its 10-year average (2.3%); while global gas production was essentially flat (0.3%, 21 bcm), the weakest growth in gas output for 34 years, other than in the immediate aftermath of the financial crisis. This sub-par growth went hand-in-hand with falling gas prices – Henry Hub prices were 5% lower than in 2015, European and Asian gas markers were down 20-30% as prices continued to adjust to increased LNG supplies.

Much of the lacklustre performance can be traced back to the US, particularly on the supply side where falls in gas (and oil) prices caused US gas production (-17 bcm, -2.5%) to fall for the first time since the US shale gas revolution started in earnest in the mid-2000s. Outside of the US, on the demand side, gas consumption in Europe rose strongly (6%, 28 bcm) helped by both the increasing competitiveness of gas relative to coal and weakness in European nuclear and renewable energy. The Middle East (3.5%, 19 bcm) and China (16 bcm, 7.7%) both also recorded strong increases aided by improving infrastructure and availability of gas. The largest falls were in Russia (-12 bcm, -3.2%) and Brazil (-5 bcm, -12.5%) both of which benefited from strong increases in hydropower. On the supply side, Australian production (19 bcm, 25.2%) was the standout performer as several new LNG facilities came on stream.

Looking at the growing market for LNG, although China continued to provide the main source of growth, it's striking that the increasing availability of supplies has prompted a number of new countries, including Egypt, Pakistan and Poland, to enter the market in the last year or two. These new entrants were helped by the increased flexibility afforded by plentiful supplies of FSRUs (floating storage and regasification units). 2016 was the first year of the growth spurt we expect to see in LNG, with global supplies set to increase by around a further 30% by 2020. That is equivalent to a new LNG train coming onstream every two-to-three months for the next four years – quite astonishing growth. As the importance of LNG trade grows, global gas markets are likely to evolve quite materially.

A particularly interesting market in the context of the growing LNG supplies is Europe. On the one hand, Europe's large and increasing need for imported gas, combined with its relatively central location amongst several major LNG suppliers, means Europe is often highlighted as a natural growth market for LNG. On the other hand, Europe's access to plentiful supplies of pipeline gas, particularly from Russia, means LNG imports are likely to face stiff competition.

The economic incentives in this battle of competing supplies are clear: just as with OPEC's response to the emergence of US tight oil, Russia has a strong incentive to compete to maintain its market share in the face of growing competition from LNG supplies. But this competitive process is complicated by possible concerns about Europe being overly dependent on a single source of supply and the energy security issues this might raise.

Indian Economic Scenario

The growth of real gross value added (GVA) accelerated sequentially in Q2 of 2017-18, after five consecutive quarters of deceleration. It was powered by a sharp acceleration in industrial activity. All the three sub-sectors of industry registered higher growth. GVA growth in the manufacturing sector – the key component of industry – accelerated sharply on improved demand and re-stocking post goods and services tax (GST) implementation. The mining sector expanded in Q2 due to higher coal and natural gas production. GVA growth in the electricity, gas, water supply and other utility services sector also strengthened on higher demand. In contrast, growth in agriculture and allied activities slackened, reflecting the lower than expected kharif harvest. Activity in the services sector decelerated, mainly on account of slowdown in financial, insurance, real estate and professional services, and in public administration, defence and other services (PADO) following the large front-loading of government expenditure in Q1.

Retail inflation measured by year-on-year change in the consumer price index (CPI) recorded a seven-month high in October, driven by a sharp uptick in momentum, tempered partly by some favourable base effects. Food inflation was volatile in the last two months – declining sharply in September and bouncing back in October – due mainly to vegetables and fruits. Milk and eggs inflation has shown an uptick, while pulses inflation remained negative for the eleventh successive month in October. Cereal inflation remained stable. Fuel group inflation, which has been on an upward trajectory since July, accelerated further due to a sharp pick-up in inflation in liquefied petroleum gas (LPG), kerosene, coke and electricity.

Indian Oil and Gas Industry

The oil and gas sector is among the six core industries in India and plays a major role in influencing decision making for all the other important sections of the economy. India's economic growth is closely related to energy demand; therefore the need for oil and gas is projected to grow more, thereby making the sector quite conducive for investment.

The Government of India has adopted several policies to fulfill the increasing demand. The government has allowed 100 per cent Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) in many segments of the sector, including natural gas, petroleum products, and refineries, among others. Today, it attracts both domestic and foreign investment, as attested by the presence of Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL) and Cairn India.

Indian Oilfield Services Industry

The Oilfield Services/Equipment Industry is made up of a mature set of companies, the fortunes of which are dependent on the drilling expenditures of oil and natural gas producers. Since demand for such fuels fluctuates with the economy, oilfield services stocks are considered cyclical.

Companies in this industry are of two main types: those that rent drilling rigs and those that provide the various services required to evaluate, construct, and maintain oil and gas wells. The top service and equipment providers offer the broadest array of capabilities. Smaller players usually focus on a market niche. Contract drillers may be classified as land and/or offshore operators. Offshore drilling equipment is graded according to its ability to work in deep water and in rugged environments. Industry margins are excellent during boom times, but can narrow supply during slow periods.

The market for oilfield services (OFS) in India is forecast to cross US $ 7.8 billion in 2020. Growth in the market is anticipated on account of increasing oil & gas exploration and production activities in the country, aimed at reducing India's dependence on oil imports. Oilfield services help smoothen the drilling process by eliminating the waste produced during drilling, and enhance the oil recovery process by providing repair and maintenance of bore wells.

Oilfield drilling services accounted for the largest share in India oilfield services market in 2014, followed by drilling & completion fluids services, wireline services, etc. Gujarat, Rajasthan and Assam hold the maximum share in oilfield services market in India, as major oil & gas exploration and production activities are concentrated in these states. With various Public Sector Undertakings (PSUs) planning to invest in E&P activities, the country's oilfield services market is set to witness growth during 2015 – 2020.

“Under a new revenue sharing model, the Government of India has decided to auction 69 idle oil & gas fields of state-owned ONGC and Oil India, to private companies. This move is anticipated to boost exploration and production of oil & gas in these fields, which is in turn expected to fuel growth in the market for oilfield services in India, during 2015 – 2020.”, said Mr. Karan Chechi, Research Director with TechSci Research, a research based global management consulting firm.

Market Size

India is expected to be one of the largest contributors to non-OECD petroleum consumption growth globally. Total oil imports rose 4.24 per cent year-on-year to US$ 86.45 billion in April-March 2016-17. India's oil consumption grew 8.3 per cent year-on-year to 212.7 million tonnes in 2016, as against the global growth of 1.5 per cent, thereby making it the third-largest oil consuming nation in the world.

India is the fourth-largest Liquefied Natural Gas (LNG) importer after Japan, South Korea and China, and accounts for 5.8 per cent of the total global trade. Domestic LNG demand is expected to grow at a CAGR of 16.89 per cent to 306.54 MMSCMD by 2021 from 64 MMSCMD in 2015.

The demand of Petroleum Oil and Lubricants grew at a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 5.6 per cent under the 12th Five Year Plan (2012-17)

The country's gas production is expected to touch 90 Billion Cubic Metres (BCM) in 2040 from 23.09 BCM in FY2016-17 (till December 2016). Gas pipeline infrastructure in the country stood at 16,240.4 km in November 2016.

State-owned Oil and Natural Gas Corporation (ONGC) dominates the upstream segment (exploration and production), and produced around 1,847 thousand metric tonnes (TMT) of crude oil, as against the country's 2,939 MT oil output in April 2017. The company also accounted for 57 percent of the country's domestic crude oil production in 2016-17.

Government Initiatives

Some of the major initiatives taken by the Government of India to promote oil and gas sector are:

- The Government of India plans to build a nine million tonne (MT) refinery in Rajasthan as well as a 60 MT refinery in Maharashtra, auction oil and gas fields, increase use of liquefied natural gas (LNG), and is in discussions with Saudi Arabian Oil Co (Saudi Aramco) regarding investments in India, as per Mr Dharmendra Pradhan, Minister of State for Petroleum and Natural Gas, Government of India.
- The Government of India plans to merge state oil companies to create an integrated oil major that could compete globally, and utilise the synergy between various state entities for achieving efficiency and cost competitiveness in order to create more value for all shareholders.
- The Government of India plans to unveil a new policy for renewing and extending the lease of 28 oil and gas blocks in the country, with a view to attract more investments into these fields.
- The Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs, Government of India, has approved the awarding of contracts on 23 onshore and 8 offshore contract areas of discovered small oil and gas fields that earlier belonged to Oil and Natural Gas Corporation (ONGC) and Oil India Limited (OIL).
- The Ministry of Mines plans to restart operations in several hundred mines across the country in order to raise the share of mining and quarrying industry in India's Gross Value Addition (GVA) by one percentage point from 2.4 per cent at present, over the next two-to-three years.

Road Ahead

India's oil demand is expected to grow at a CAGR of 3.6 per cent to 458 Million Tonnes of Oil Equivalent (MTOE) by 2040, while demand for energy will more than double by 2040 as economy will grow to more than five times its current size, as stated by Mr Dharmendra Pradhan, Minister of State for Petroleum and Natural Gas.

Gas production will likely touch 90 Billion Cubic Metres (BCM) by 2040, subject to adjustment to the current formula that determines the price paid to domestic producers, while demand for natural gas will grow at a CAGR of 4.6 per cent to touch 149 MTOE.

The demand for petroleum products is estimated to reach 244,960 MT by 2021-22, up from 186,209 MT in 2016, and the demand for natural gas is expected to reach 606 MMSCMD by 2021-22 as against a demand of 473 MMSCMD in 2016-17.

Global Economic Scenario

Since the last meeting of the MPC in October 2017, global economic activity has been gaining momentum through the final quarter of the year, driven mainly by advanced economies (AEs). US growth remained largely resilient to hurricanes and grew at the highest pace in the past three years in Q3 of 2017, with positive contributions from private consumption, investment activity and net exports. The unemployment rate fell to 4.1 per cent in October, the lowest in the last 17 years. In the Euro area, economic activity expanded, underpinned by accommodative monetary policy and strong job gains. The Japanese economy also continued to grow in Q3, largely supported by external demand, which helped compensate for the slowing of domestic consumption.

Among major emerging market economies (EMEs), the services sector remained the main driver of growth in China in Q3. However, weakness in real estate and construction activity remained a drag on growth. In Brazil, incoming data suggest that the recovery gained further momentum in Q3, with unemployment touching an intra-year low in September. Business and consumer confidence rose in October. Economic activity in Russia moderated in Q3 due to weakness in industrial production. The South African economy continued to face headwinds from weak manufacturing activity, elevated levels of unemployment and political instability.

(Source: Monetary Policy Report, issued by RBI in December, 2017)

Global economic activity is picking up with a long awaited cyclical recovery in investment, manufacturing, and trade. World growth is expected to rise from 3.1 percent in 2016 to 3.5 percent in 2017 and 3.6 percent in 2018, slightly above the October 2016 World Economic Outlook (WEO) forecast. Stronger activity and expectations of more robust global demand, coupled with agreed restrictions on oil supply, have helped commodity prices recover from their troughs in early 2016. But these positive developments should not distract from binding structural impediments to a stronger recovery and a balance of risks that remains tilted to the downside, especially over the medium term. Structural problems—such as low productivity growth and high income inequality—are likely to persist.

In the second half of 2016, the stronger global momentum in demand—investment in particular—resulted in marked improvements in manufacturing and trade, which were very weak in late 2015 and early 2016. Consistent with indications of firming global manufacturing activity, global trade is showing some signs of recovery after a long period of weakness.

Economic activity gained some momentum in the second half of 2016, especially in advanced economies. Growth picked up in the United States as firms grew more confident about future demand, and inventories started contributing positively to growth (after five quarters of drag). Economic performance across emerging market and developing economies has remained mixed. Whereas China's growth remained strong, reflecting continued policy support, activity has slowed in India because of the impact of the currency exchange initiative, as well as in Brazil, which has been mired in a deep recession.

Indian Economic Scenario

The growth of real gross value added (GVA) accelerated sequentially in Q2 of 2017-18, after five consecutive quarters of deceleration. It was powered by a sharp acceleration in industrial activity. All the three sub-sectors of industry registered higher growth. GVA growth in the manufacturing sector – the key component of industry – accelerated sharply on improved demand and re-stocking post goods and services tax (GST) implementation. The mining sector expanded in Q2 due to higher coal and natural gas production. GVA growth in the electricity, gas, water supply and other utility services sector also strengthened on higher demand. In contrast, growth in agriculture and allied activities slackened, reflecting the lower than expected kharif harvest. Activity in the services sector decelerated, mainly on account of slowdown in financial, insurance, real estate and professional services, and in public administration, defence and other services (PADO) following the large front-loading of government expenditure in Q1.

Retail inflation measured by year-on-year change in the consumer price index (CPI) recorded a seven-month high in October, driven by a sharp uptick in momentum, tempered partly by some favourable base effects. Food inflation was volatile in the last two months – declining sharply in September and bouncing back in October – due mainly to vegetables and fruits. Milk and eggs inflation has shown an uptick, while pulses inflation remained negative for the eleventh successive month in October. Cereal inflation remained stable. Fuel group inflation, which has been on an upward trajectory since July, accelerated further due to a sharp pick-up in inflation in liquefied petroleum gas (LPG), kerosene, coke and electricity.

(Source: Monetary Policy Report, issued by RBI in December, 2017)

Available high-frequency indicators suggest a mixed picture of industrial activity for Q3. Core industries' growth was flat in October as all constituents barring steel and fertilisers slowed down sequentially. Coal mining, which revived strongly in Q2, slowed down too, while cement production contracted. In contrast, the Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI) for manufacturing, which fell in October, rebounded in November, driven by output and new orders. Also, according to the Reserve Bank's Industrial Outlook Survey (IOS), production is expected to pick up in Q3 as order books are rising.

GVA projections, Q2 growth was lower than that projected in the October resolution. The recent increase in oil prices may have a negative impact on margins of firms and GVA growth. Shortfalls in kharif production and rabi sowing pose downside risks to the outlook for agriculture. On the positive side, there has been some pick up in credit growth in recent months. Recapitalisation of public sector banks may help improve credit flows further. While there has been weakness in some components of the services sector such as real estate, the Reserve Bank's survey indicates that the services and infrastructure sectors are expecting an improvement in demand, financial conditions and the overall business situation in Q4. Taking into account the above factors, the projection of real GVA growth for 2017-18 of the October resolution at 6.7 per cent has been retained, with risks evenly balanced.

Global energy Sector

Global energy markets are in transition. Rapid growth and improving prosperity mean growth in energy demand is increasingly coming from developing economies, particularly within Asia, rather than from traditional markets in the OECD. The relentless drive to improve energy efficiency is causing global energy consumption overall to decelerate. And, of course, the energy mix is shifting towards cleaner, lower carbon fuels, driven by environmental needs and technological advances.

Energy consumption grew slowly again in 2016 – the third consecutive year in which demand has grown by 1% or less – much weaker than the rates of growth we had become used to over the previous 10 years or so. Moreover, the weak growth in energy demand, combined with a continuing shift towards lower carbon fuels, meant global carbon emissions from energy consumption were estimated to have been essentially flat in 2016 for a third consecutive year – a substantial improvement relative to past trends.

From a global level, much of this improvement can be traced back to the pronounced changes in the pace and pattern of economic growth and energy consumption within China. The extent to which these changes will persist as China moves to a more sustainable pattern of growth and how much will unwind as the marked weakness in some of China's most energy-intensive sectors eases is uncertain. We need to keep up our focus and efforts on reducing carbon emissions.

In terms of individual fuels, 2016 was a year of adjustment for the oil market, with low prices fuelling demand growth and weighing on production, particularly US tight oil which fell back substantially. As a result, the oil market moved broadly into balance in the second half of the year, albeit with inventories remaining at elevated levels. Towards the end of last year, OPEC together with 10 non-OPEC producers announced an agreement to cut output in order to speed up the pace at which oil stocks adjust to more normal levels. The price responsiveness of US tight oil and the actions of OPEC dominated oil markets in 2016 and look set to continue to do so over the next few years.

The weak price environment in 2016 was also felt in the natural gas market, where global production was essentially flat. This is the weakest growth in gas output for 34 years, other than in the immediate aftermath of the financial crisis. Even so, exports of liquefied natural gas (LNG) increased strongly, as a number of major LNG projects in Australia came on stream. The growth spurt in LNG supplies expected over the next few years is likely to have a major influence on global gas markets, leading to greater integration of markets across the globe and a move towards more flexible, competitive markets.

The influence of the energy transition was particularly marked in the contrasting fortunes of coal and renewable energy. Coal consumption fell sharply for the second consecutive year, with its share within primary energy falling to its lowest level since 2004. Indeed, coal production and consumption in the UK completed an entire cycle, falling back to levels last seen almost 200 years ago around the time of the Industrial Revolution, with the UK power sector recording its first ever coal-free day in April 2017. In contrast, renewable energy globally led by wind and solar power grew strongly, helped by continuing technological advances. Although the share of renewable energy within total energy remains small, at around 4%, it accounted for almost a third of the increase in primary energy in 2016.

Oil

2015 was a year of thwarted adjustment for oil: strong growth in OPEC production outweighed the responses of both demand and non-OPEC production to lower prices. In contrast, 2016 was a year of adjustment for the oil market, with oil demand again increasing robustly and production growing by less than a quarter (0.4 Mb/d) of that seen in 2015.

Global oil demand grew by 1.6 Mb/d in 2016. As in 2015, this strength was almost entirely due to oil importers, with both India (0.3 Mb/d) and Europe (0.3 Mb/d) posting unusually strong increases. Although, growth in China (0.4 Mb/d) and the US (0.1 Mb/d) was more subdued. As in 2015, the strength in oil demand was most pronounced in consumer-led fuels, such as gasoline, buoyed by low prices. In contrast, diesel demand, which was more exposed to the industrial slowdown, including in the US and China, declined for the first time since 2009.

The weakness on the supply side was driven by non-OPEC production which fell by 0.8 Mb/d, its largest decline for almost 25 years. This fall was led by US tight oil, whose production fell 0.3 Mb/d, a swing of almost 1 Mb/d relative to growth in 2015. China also experienced its largest ever decline in oil production (-0.3 Mb/d). In contrast, OPEC production recorded another year of solid growth (1.2 Mb/d), with Iran (0.7 Mb/d), Iraq (0.4 Mb/d) and Saudi Arabia (0.4 Mb/d) more than accounting for the increase. Iran's production and its share of OPEC output are now both back around pre-sanction levels.

The combination of strong demand and weak supply was sufficient to move the oil market broadly back into balance by the middle of the year. But this was not before inventories had increased even further from their already excessive levels, such that the level of OECD inventories by the end of 2016 was around 300 Mbbls above their five-year average.

The drama and intrigue that has characterized oil markets since the price collapse in 2014 have been dominated by two principal actors: US tight oil and OPEC. Notwithstanding that, the short-cycle nature of fracking meant activity related to US tight oil did respond far more quickly to price signals than conventional oil and, in so doing, dampened price volatility. Rigs started to fall around four to six months after oil prices peaked in June 2014 and picked up even more quickly – within three or four months – once prices started to turn at the beginning of 2016.

And this lower activity fed through into slower output growth. In the first half of 2015 – so less than a year after the peak in oil prices – tight oil production grew by just 0.1 Mb/d, compared with over 0.5 Mb/d in the same period a year earlier – a swing in annualized terms of 0.8 Mb/d. Similarly, US tight oil has grown solidly in the first half of this year, following the trough in prices in the spring of 2016. The final point to note about US tight oil is that productivity continued to rise rapidly through the cycle, with new well production per rig increasing by around 40% per year in both 2015 and 2016. Despite rigs in the Permian falling by over 75%, output continued to grow. Put differently, a rig operating in the Permian today is equivalent to more than three rigs at the end of 2014.

OPEC took some decisive actions which caught many observers by surprise and dramatically changed the course of events. First, by not cutting production in November 2014, triggering a collapse in prices, and then in November 2016 agreeing, along with 10 non-OPEC producers, to a production cut totalling 1.8 Mb/d.

OPEC remains a central force, able to manage and stabilize the oil market, but the nature of that power means it is effective for short-term aberrations, not structural shifts. The persistent supply imbalance and growing inventory levels caused prices to fall towards the end of 2015 and into 2016. Prices stabilized through the middle of the year as the market moved into balance and inventories levelled off, before firming somewhat towards the end of the year in the wake of the OPEC/non-OPEC agreement. Dated Brent averaged $44 per barrel in 2016, down from $52 in 2015, its lowest (nominal) average since 2004. So far, this year, prices have averaged about $53 as the OPEC cuts have started to take effect, albeit partially offset by the strong recovery in US tight oil.

Natural Gas

Global consumption increased by 1.5% (63 bcm), quite a bit weaker than its 10-year average (2.3%); while global gas production was essentially flat (0.3%, 21 bcm), the weakest growth in gas output for 34 years, other than in the immediate aftermath of the financial crisis. This sub-par growth went hand-in-hand with falling gas prices – Henry Hub prices were 5% lower than in 2015, European and Asian gas markers were down 20-30% as prices continued to adjust to increased LNG supplies.

Much of the lacklustre performance can be traced back to the US, particularly on the supply side where falls in gas (and oil) prices caused US gas production (-17 bcm, -2.5%) to fall for the first time since the US shale gas revolution started in earnest in the mid-2000s. Outside of the US, on the demand side, gas consumption in Europe rose strongly (6%, 28 bcm) helped by both the increasing competitiveness of gas relative to coal and weakness in European nuclear and renewable energy. The Middle East (3.5%, 19 bcm) and China (16 bcm, 7.7%) both also recorded strong increases aided by improving infrastructure and availability of gas. The largest falls were in Russia (-12 bcm, -3.2%) and Brazil (-5 bcm, -12.5%) both of which benefited from strong increases in hydropower. On the supply side, Australian production (19 bcm, 25.2%) was the standout performer as several new LNG facilities came on stream.

Looking at the growing market for LNG, although China continued to provide the main source of growth, it's striking that the increasing availability of supplies has prompted a number of new countries, including Egypt, Pakistan and Poland, to enter the market in the last year or two. These new entrants were helped by the increased flexibility afforded by plentiful supplies of FSRUs (floating storage and regasification units). 2016 was the first year of the growth spurt we expect to see in LNG, with global supplies set to increase by around a further 30% by 2020. That is equivalent to a new LNG train coming onstream every two-to-three months for the next four years – quite astonishing growth. As the importance of LNG trade grows, global gas markets are likely to evolve quite materially.

A particularly interesting market in the context of the growing LNG supplies is Europe. On the one hand, Europe's large and increasing need for imported gas, combined with its relatively central location amongst several major LNG suppliers, means Europe is often highlighted as a natural growth market for LNG. On the other hand, Europe's access to plentiful supplies of pipeline gas, particularly from Russia, means LNG imports are likely to face stiff competition.

The economic incentives in this battle of competing supplies are clear: just as with OPEC's response to the emergence of US tight oil, Russia has a strong incentive to compete to maintain its market share in the face of growing competition from LNG supplies. But this competitive process is complicated by possible concerns about Europe being overly dependent on a single source of supply and the energy security issues this might raise.

Indian Oil and Gas Industry

The oil and gas sector is among the six core industries in India and plays a major role in influencing decision making for all the other important sections of the economy. India's economic growth is closely related to energy demand; therefore the need for oil and gas is projected to grow more, thereby making the sector quite conducive for investment.

The Government of India has adopted several policies to fulfill the increasing demand. The government has allowed 100 per cent Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) in many segments of the sector, including natural gas, petroleum products, and refineries, among others. Today, it attracts both domestic and foreign investment, as attested by the presence of Reliance Industries Ltd (RIL) and Cairn India.

Indian Oilfield Services Industry

The Oilfield Services/Equipment Industry is made up of a mature set of companies, the fortunes of which are dependent on the drilling expenditures of oil and natural gas producers. Since demand for such fuels fluctuates with the economy, oilfield services stocks are considered cyclical.

Companies in this industry are of two main types: those that rent drilling rigs and those that provide the various services required to evaluate, construct, and maintain oil and gas wells. The top service and equipment providers offer the broadest array of capabilities. Smaller players usually focus on a market niche. Contract drillers may be classified as land and/or offshore operators. Offshore drilling equipment is graded according to its ability to work in deep water and in rugged environments. Industry margins are excellent during boom times, but can narrow supply during slow periods.

The market for oilfield services (OFS) in India is forecast to cross US $ 7.8 billion in 2020. Growth in the market is anticipated on account of increasing oil & gas exploration and production activities in the country, aimed at reducing India's dependence on oil imports. Oilfield services help smoothen the drilling process by eliminating the waste produced during drilling, and enhance the oil recovery process by providing repair and maintenance of bore wells.

Oilfield drilling services accounted for the largest share in India oilfield services market in 2014, followed by drilling & completion fluids services, wireline services, etc. Gujarat, Rajasthan and Assam hold the maximum share in oilfield services market in India, as major oil & gas exploration and production activities are concentrated in these states. With various Public Sector Undertakings (PSUs) planning to invest in E&P activities, the country's oilfield services market is set to witness growth during 2015 – 2020.

“Under a new revenue sharing model, the Government of India has decided to auction 69 idle oil & gas fields of state-owned ONGC and Oil India, to private companies. This move is anticipated to boost exploration and production of oil & gas in these fields, which is in turn expected to fuel growth in the market for oilfield services in India, during 2015 – 2020.”, said Mr. Karan Chechi, Research Director with TechSci Research, a research based global management consulting firm.

Market Size

India is expected to be one of the largest contributors to non-OECD petroleum consumption growth globally. Total oil imports rose 4.24 per cent year-on-year to US$ 86.45 billion in April-March 2016-17. India's oil consumption grew 8.3 per cent year-on-year to 212.7 million tonnes in 2016, as against the global growth of 1.5 per cent, thereby making it the third-largest oil consuming nation in the world.

India is the fourth-largest Liquefied Natural Gas (LNG) importer after Japan, South Korea and China, and accounts for 5.8 per cent of the total global trade. Domestic LNG demand is expected to grow at a CAGR of 16.89 per cent to 306.54 MMSCMD by 2021 from 64 MMSCMD in 2015.

The demand of Petroleum Oil and Lubricants grew at a Compound Annual Growth Rate (CAGR) of 5.6 per cent under the 12th Five Year Plan (2012-17)

The country's gas production is expected to touch 90 Billion Cubic Metres (BCM) in 2040 from 23.09 BCM in FY2016-17 (till December 2016). Gas pipeline infrastructure in the country stood at 16,240.4 km in November 2016.

State-owned Oil and Natural Gas Corporation (ONGC) dominates the upstream segment (exploration and production), and produced around 1,847 thousand metric tonnes (TMT) of crude oil, as against the country's 2,939 MT oil output in April 2017. The company also accounted for 57 percent of the country's domestic crude oil production in 2016-17.

- In FY16, India had 230.06 MMTPA of refining capacity, making it the 2nd largest refiner in Asia. By 2017, the oil refining capacity of India is expected to rise & reach more than 310 million tonnes. Private companies own about 38.21 per cent of total refining capacity.
- In FY16, oil production in the country reached 36.942 million metric tonnes as compared to 37.461 million metric tonnes in FY15. In 2016, country had 7087 million metric tonnes of proven oil reserves.
- India's energy demand is expected to double to 1,516 Mtoe by 2035 from 700.50 Mtoe in 2015. Moreover, the country's share in global primary energy consumption is projected to increase by 2-folds by 2035.
- In 2014, India consumed 3.85 mbpd oil, while the consumption is estimated to reach 4.0 mbpd by FY16, expanding at a CAGR of 3.2 per cent during FY08–16F.
- India was 3rd largest consumer of crude oil & petroleum products in the world in 2015.
- India had 4154 million metric tonnes of gas proved reserves & produced 32.249 bcm of gas in 2016 which is expected to rise and reach 34.119 bcm in 2016.
- LNG imports into India has accounted for about one-fourth of total gas demand, which is estimated to further increase by 2 times, over next 5 years. To meet this rising demand the country plans to increase its LNG import capacity to 50 million tonnes in the coming years.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • State owned ONGC dominate this segment. • ONGC accounts for approximately 59.43% of the country's total oil output IN FY15. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IOCL operates a 11,214km network of crude, gas and product pipelines, with a capacity of 1.6 mbpd of oil and 10 mmscmd of gas. • it accounts for 30% of nation's total pipeline network. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • IOCL controls 10 out of 22 Indian refineries, with a combined capacity of 1.31 mbpd. • Reliance launched India's 1st privately owned refinery and gained 30% of total market share . • Essar's Vadinar refinery has a capacity of 20 mmtpa, accounting for 10% of total refining capacity.

Notable Trends in the Oil and Gas Sector

1. Coal Bed Methane (CBM): Government approved the CBM policy in 1997 to boost the development of clean and renewable energy resources. The CBM policy was designed to be liberal and investor friendly; the 1st commercial production of CBM was initiated in July 2007 at about 72,000 cubic metres per day
2. Underground Coal Gasification (UCG): The technology was first widely used in the US in the 1800s and in India (Kolkata and Mumbai) in the early 1900s. UCG is currently the only feasible technology available to harness energy from deep unmineable coal seams economically in an eco-friendly manner and it reduces capital outlay, operating costs and output gas expenses by 25–50 per cent vis-à-vis surface gasification.

3. Gas hydrates and Bio-fuels: The government initiated the National Gas Hydrate Programme (NGHP), a consortium of national E and P companies and research institutions, to map gas hydrates for use as an alternate source of energy. Bio-fuels (bio-ethanol and bio-diesel) are alternate sources of energy from domestic renewable resources; these have lower emissions compared to petroleum or diesel.
4. Open Acreage Licensing Policy: The Open Acreage Licensing Policy (OLAP), which allows an explorer to study the data available and bid for blocks of his choice has been initiated in parallel with NELP to increase foreign participation by global E and P companies like Shell, BP, Conoco Phillips etc.

Government Initiatives

Some of the major initiatives taken by the Government of India to promote oil and gas sector are:

- The Government of India plans to build a nine million tonne (MT) refinery in Rajasthan as well as a 60 MT refinery in Maharashtra, auction oil and gas fields, increase use of liquefied natural gas (LNG), and is in discussions with Saudi Arabian Oil Co (Saudi Aramco) regarding investments in India, as per Mr Dharmendra Pradhan, Minister of State for Petroleum and Natural Gas, Government of India.
- The Government of India plans to merge state oil companies to create an integrated oil major that could compete globally, and utilise the synergy between various state entities for achieving efficiency and cost competitiveness in order to create more value for all shareholders.
- The Government of India plans to unveil a new policy for renewing and extending the lease of 28 oil and gas blocks in the country, with a view to attract more investments into these fields.
- The Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs, Government of India, has approved the awarding of contracts on 23 onshore and 8 offshore contract areas of discovered small oil and gas fields that earlier belonged to Oil and Natural Gas Corporation (ONGC) and Oil India Limited (OIL).
- The Ministry of Mines plans to restart operations in several hundred mines across the country in order to raise the share of mining and quarrying industry in India's Gross Value Addition (GVA) by one percentage point from 2.4 per cent at present, over the next two-to-three years.

Road Ahead

India's oil demand is expected to grow at a CAGR of 3.6 per cent to 458 Million Tonnes of Oil Equivalent (MTOE) by 2040, while demand for energy will more than double by 2040 as economy will grow to more than five times its current size, as stated by Mr Dharmendra Pradhan, Minister of State for Petroleum and Natural Gas.

Gas production will likely touch 90 Billion Cubic Metres (BCM) by 2040, subject to adjustment to the current formula that determines the price paid to domestic producers, while demand for natural gas will grow at a CAGR of 4.6 per cent to touch 149 MTOE.

The demand for petroleum products is estimated to reach 244,960 MT by 2021-22, up from 186,209 MT in 2016, and the demand for natural gas is expected to reach 606 MMSCMD by 2021-22 as against a demand of 473 MMSCMD in 2016-17.

ANNEXURE – 4NOTES TO ACCOUNTS & SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES FOR THE PREPARATION OF RESTATED FINANCIAL STATEMENT*A. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES –*1. Basis of Preparation of financial statement

These financial statements have been prepared to comply with the Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India (Indian GAAP), including the Accounting Standards notified under the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. The financial statements have been prepared on accrual basis under the historical cost convention. The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are consistent with those followed in the previous year.

2. Use of estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with Indian GAAP requires the Management to make estimates and assumptions considered in the reported amounts of assets and liabilities (including contingent liabilities) and the reported income and expenses during the year. The Management believes that the estimates used in preparation of the financial statements are prudent and reasonable. Future results could differ due to these estimates and the differences between the actual results and the estimates are recognised in the periods in which the results are known / materialize.

3. Cash and cash equivalents (for purposes of Cash Flow Statement)

Cash comprises cash on hand and demand deposits with banks. Cash equivalents are short-term balances (with an original maturity of three months or less from the date of acquisition), highly liquid investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to insignificant risk of changes in value.

4. Cash Flow Statement

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby profit I (loss) before extraordinary items and tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated based on the available information.

5. Depreciation & Amortization

Depreciation, on fixed assets, based on useful life of the assets as prescribed in Schedule II to the Companies Act, 2013, on Written Down Value (WDV) method. Depreciation on additions during the year is provided on prorata time basis.

6. Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured.

Company follows accrual system of accounting including for revenue recognition i.e. in case of unbilled revenue as on year end date/cut-off date for interim period for services provided till the said yearend date/cutoff date, Company is consistently following the policy of making provision for income (revenue) based on amount billed as per log book approved in subsequent month or later thereon from respective clients for the services provided on the basis of matching concept policy.

Other income

Interest income is accounted on accrual basis. All other income is recognised on accrual basis.

7. Tangible Fixed Assets

Fixed assets are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, if any. The cost of fixed assets includes interest on borrowings attributable to acquisition of qualifying fixed assets up to the date the asset is ready for its intended use and other incidental expenses incurred up to that date. Subsequent expenditure relating to fixed assets is capitalised only if such expenditure results in an increase in the future benefits from such asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance.

8. Intangible assets

Intangible assets are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and impairment losses, if any. The cost of an intangible asset comprises its purchase price, including any import duties and other taxes (other than those subsequently recoverable from the taxing authorities), and any directly attributable expenditure on making the asset ready for its intended use and net of any trade discounts and rebates. Subsequent expenditure on an intangible asset after its purchase / completion is recognised as an expense when incurred unless it is probable that such expenditure will enable the asset to generate future economic benefits in excess of its originally assessed standards of performance and such expenditure can be measured and attributed to the asset reliably, in which case such expenditure is added to the cost of the asset.

9. Foreign currency transactions & translations

Initial Recognition

Foreign currency transactions are recorded in the reporting currency by applying to the foreign currency amount the exchange rate between the reporting currency and the foreign currency at the date of the transaction.

Conversion

Monetary foreign currency assets and liabilities remaining unsettled at the balance sheet date are translated at the rates of exchange prevailing on that date. Gains/losses arising on account of realisation/settlement of foreign exchange transactions and on translation of foreign currency assets and liabilities are recognised in the Profit and Loss Account.

10. Employee Benefits

Short Term Employee Benefits

All employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are classified as short-term employee benefits. Benefits such as salaries, wages, and short term compensated absences, etc. are recognized in the period in which the employee renders the related services.

Post-Employment Benefits

Defined contribution plans

The Company's contribution to provident fund is considered as defined contribution plans and is charged as an expense as they fall due based on the amount of contribution required to be made.

11. Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing the profit I (loss) after tax (including the post tax effect of extraordinary items, if any) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

12. Taxes on Income

Current tax is the amount of tax payable on the taxable Income for the year as determined in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Act, 1961.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) paid in accordance with the tax laws, which gives future economic benefits in the form of adjustment to future income tax liability, is considered as an asset if there is convincing evidence that the Company will pay normal income tax. Accordingly, MAT is recognised as an asset in the Balance Sheet when it is probable that future economic benefit associated with it will flow to the Company. Deferred tax is recognised on timing differences, being the differences between the taxable income and the accounting income that originate in one period and are capable of reversal in one or more subsequent periods. Deferred tax is measured using the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantially enacted as at the reporting date. Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all timing differences. Deferred tax assets in respect of unabsorbed depreciation and carry forward of losses are recognised only if there is virtual certainty that there will be sufficient future taxable income available to realise such assets. Deferred tax assets are recognised for timing differences of other items only to the extent that reasonable certainty exists that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which these can be realised. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if such items relate to taxes on income levied by the same governing tax laws and the Company has a legally enforceable right for such set off. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each Balance Sheet date for their realisability.

13. Impairment of assets

The carrying values of assets at each Balance Sheet date are reviewed for impairment. If any indication of impairment exists, the recoverable amount of such assets is estimated and impairment is recognised, if the carrying amount of these assets exceeds their recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the greater of the net selling price and their value in use. Value in use is arrived at by discounting the future cash flows to their present value based on an appropriate discount factor. When there is indication that an impairment loss recognised for an asset in earlier accounting period no longer exists or may have decreased, such reversal of impairment loss is in the Statement of Profit and Loss, except in case of revalued assets.

14. Provisions, Contingent Liabilities and Contingent Assets

Provisions involving substantial degree of estimation in measurement are recognized when there is a present obligation as a result of past events and it is probable that there will be an outflow of resources. Contingent Liabilities are not recognised but are disclosed in the notes. Contingent Assets are neither recognized nor disclosed in the financial statements.

B. CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES IN THE YEARS/PERIODS COVERED IN THE RESTATED FINANCIALS

There is no change in significant accounting policies during the reporting period except, as and when Accounting Standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India / Companies (Accounting Standard) Rules, 2006 were made applicable on the relevant dates.

Further Reconciliation of Audited Profit after Tax (PAT) with Restated Profit after Tax is as follows –

In the event of the Offer being over-subscribed, the Issuer may finalise the Basis of Allotment in consultation with the Designated Stock Exchange in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, 2009.

The allocation may be made in marketable lots, on a proportionate basis as explained below:

- a) Bidders may be categorized according to the number of Equity Shares applied for;
- b) The total number of Equity Shares to be Allotted to each category as a whole may be arrived at on a proportionate basis, which is the total number of Equity Shares applied for in that category (number of Bidders in the category multiplied by the number of Equity Shares applied for) multiplied by the inverse of the oversubscription ratio;
- c) The number of Equity Shares to be Allotted to the successful Bidders may be arrived at on a proportionate basis, which is total number of Equity Shares applied for by each Bidder in that category multiplied by the inverse of the over-subscription ratio;
- d) In all Bids where the proportionate Allotment is less than the minimum Bid Lot decided per Bidder, the Allotment may be made as follows: the successful Bidders out of the total Bidders for a category may be determined by a draw of lots in a manner such that the total number of Equity Shares Allotted in that category is equal to the number of Equity Shares calculated in accordance with (b) above; and each successful Bidder may be Allotted a minimum of such Equity Shares equal to the minimum Bid Lot finalised by the Issuer;

If that number is lower than 0.5 it may be rounded off to the lower whole number. Allotment to all Bidders in such categories may be arrived at after such rounding off; and
- f) If the Equity Shares allocated on a proportionate basis to any category are more than the Equity Shares Allotted to the Bidders in that category, the remaining Equity Shares available for Allotment may be first adjusted against any other category, where the Allotted Equity Shares are not sufficient for proportionate Allotment to the successful Bidders in that category. The balance Equity Shares, if any, remaining after such adjustment may be added to the category comprising Bidders applying for minimum number of Equity Shares.

SECTION IX –RESTRICTIONS ON FOREIGN OWNERSHIP OF INDIAN SECURITIES

Foreign investment in Indian securities is regulated primarily by the FEMA and the policy prescribed by the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, Government of India through circular 2 of 2011 with effect from October 1, 2011 (FDI Policy). While the FDI Policy prescribes the limits and the conditions subject to which foreign investment can be made in different sectors of the Indian economy, FEMA regulates the precise manner in which such investment may be made. Under the FDI Policy, unless specifically restricted, foreign investment is freely permitted in all sectors of Indian economy up to any extent and without any prior approvals, but the foreign investor is required to follow certain prescribed procedures for making such investment. The Government bodies responsible for granting foreign investment approvals are FIPB and the RBI. In terms of the Consolidated FDI policy (effective from June 07, 2016), issued by the Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, 100% foreign direct investment in the Company is permitted.

The present consolidation subsumes and supersedes all Press Notes/Press Releases/Clarifications/Circulars issued by DIPP, which were in force as on June 07, 2016 and reflects the FDI Policy as on June 07, 2016. This Circular accordingly will take effect from June 07, 2016 and will remain in force until superseded in totality or in part thereof. Reference to any statute or legislation made in this Circular shall include modifications, amendments or re-enactments thereof.

RBI has also issued Master Circular on Foreign Investment in India dated July 01, 2015 which is valid till RBI issues new Circular. In terms of the Master Circular, an Indian company may issue fresh shares to persons resident outside India (who are eligible to make investments in India, for which eligibility criteria are as prescribed). Such fresh issue of shares shall be subject to inter-alia, the pricing guidelines prescribed under the Master Circular. The Indian company making such fresh issue of shares would be subject to the reporting requirements, inter-alia with respect to consideration for issue of shares and also subject to making certain filings including filing of Form FC-GPR

Subscription by foreign investors (NRIs/FIIs)

FIIs are permitted to subscribe to shares of an Indian company in a public offer without the prior approval of the RBI, so long as the price of the equity shares to be issued is not less than the price at which the equity shares are issued to residents. The transfer of shares between an Indian resident and a non-resident does not require the prior approval of the FIPB or the RBI, provided that

- (i) the activities of the investee company are under the automatic route under the FDI Policy and transfer does not attract the provisions of the SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 2011
- (ii) the non-resident shareholding is within the sectoral limits under the FDI Policy; and
- (iii) the pricing is in accordance with the guidelines prescribed by SEBI/ RBI. As per the existing policy of the Government of India, OCBs cannot participate in this Offer.

- 11. (i) To give effect to any such sale, the Board may authorise some person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser thereof.

Transfer of shares

- 19. (i) The instrument of transfer of any share in the company shall be executed by or on behalf of both the transferor and transferee.
- (ii) The transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the share until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members in respect thereof.
- 20. The Board may, subject to the right of appeal conferred by section 58 decline to register—
- (a) the transfer of a share, not being a fully paid share, to a person of whom they do not approve; or
- (b) any transfer of shares on which the company has a lien.
- 21. The Board may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer unless—
- (a) the instrument of transfer is in the form as prescribed in rules made under sub-section (1) of section 56;
- (b) the instrument of transfer is accompanied by the certificate of the shares to which it relates, and such other evidence as the Board may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer; and
- (c) the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares.
- 22. On giving not less than seven days' previous notice in accordance with section 91 and rules made thereunder, the registration of transfers may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Board may from time to time determine:

Provided that such registration shall not be suspended for more than thirty days at any one time or for more than forty-five days in the aggregate in any year.

Transmission of shares

- 23. (i) On the death of a member, the survivor or survivors where the member was a joint holder, and his nominee or nominees or legal representatives where he was a sole holder, shall be the only persons recognised by the company as having any title to his interest in the shares.
- (ii) Nothing in clause (i) shall release the estate of a deceased joint holder from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by him with other persons.

24. (i) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either—
- (a) to be registered himself as holder of the share; or
- (b) to make such transfer of the share as the deceased or insolvent member could have made.
- (ii) The Board shall, in either case, have the same right to decline or suspend registration as it would have had, if the deceased or insolvent member had transferred the share before his death or insolvency.
25. (i) If the person so becoming entitled shall elect to be registered as holder of the share himself, he shall deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.
- (ii) If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify his election by executing a transfer of the share.
- (iii) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of these regulations relating to the right to transfer and the registration of transfers of shares shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death or insolvency of the member had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by that member.
26. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the company:
- Provided that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other monies payable in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

Forfeiture of shares

27. If a member fails to pay any call, or instalment of a call, on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on him requiring payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued.
28. The notice aforesaid shall—
- (a) name a further day (not being earlier than the expiry of fourteen days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and
- (b) state that, in the event of non-payment on or before the day so named, the shares in respect of which the call was made shall be liable to be forfeited.

- 29. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice has been given may, at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect.
- 30. (i) A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed off on such terms and in such manner as the Board thinks fit.
- (ii) At any time before a sale or disposal as aforesaid, the Board may cancel the forfeiture on such terms as it thinks fit.
- 31. (i) A person whose shares have been forfeited shall cease to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares, but shall, notwithstanding the forfeiture, remain liable to pay to the company all monies which, at the date of forfeiture, were presently payable by him to the company in respect of the shares.
- (ii) The liability of such person shall cease if and when the company shall have received payment in full of all such monies in respect of the shares.
- 32. (i) A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a director, the manager or the secretary, of the company, and that a share in the company has been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share;
- (ii) The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of;
- (iii) The transferee shall thereupon be registered as the holder of the share; and
- (iv) The transferee shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, sale or disposal of the share.
- 33. The provisions of these regulations as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of nonpayment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the nominal value of the share or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Alteration of capital

- 34. The company may, from time to time, by ordinary resolution increase the share capital by such sum, to be divided into shares of such amount, as may be specified in the resolution.

36. Where shares are converted into stock,—

- (a) the holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same regulations under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit:

Provided that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so, however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.

- (b) the holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the company, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose; but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.
- (c) such of the regulations of the company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words “share” and “shareholder” in those regulations shall include “stock” and “stockholder” respectively.

37. The company may, by special resolution, reduce in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorised and consent required by law,—
